“From Sorrow to Joy”

We have had pure joy the last week of June, with regular rains and the greening of the hills and the plains that followed. That is joy bursting into our lives through God's creation. Perhaps you have had other joys - maybe a new grandchild or there has been a marriage of someone dear to you. Maybe joy came to you with a new relationship, a new job, a new home, a great vacation. The list is long if we stop to count the joys in our lives.

Sometimes, joy isn't as close as we'd like, however. We have struggles in our lives. Real difficult situations we'd rather not face - like loss of a loved one, health struggles, and other painful occurrences. But, in Psalm 30, we understand that there is a way to overcome. Verse 1 reads "I will exalt you, Lord, for you lifted me out of the depths." And, (verse 10 – 11): "Hear, Lord, and be merciful to me; Lord, be my help. You turned my wailing into dancing." We simply need to be in prayer, right? We must praise God, ask for mercy, and listen to our Lord and Redeemer.

In conversations I've had with people who are enduring pain, we often eventually recognize the blessings we find amidst the pain. Would you agree with this? So, even within a loss we experience, we find joy - the unexpected joys in the pain.

I pray we all can find the joys amidst the pain in our lives. And, even better, that we can help others who are in pain find some joy!

God's Joy and Peace.
