“Too Much Salt”

"Make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt." Colossians 4:5-6

When I was young, my sister and I loved to play practical jokes on our parents when it was April 1st (April Fools jokes). One year Cathy and I thought it would be great fun to put salt in the sugar bowl, because we knew dad would never suspect a thing. He was always on the run in the morning, trying to beat the clock to his first meeting in the morning (okay, I think I inherited this trait).

Anyway, Dad always put a scoop of sugar in his coffee and he ate breakfast cereal every day (I think it was Rice Crispies). Another scoop went on top of the crispies. When he sat down to quickly eat breakfast, he was surprised to have an awful taste of crispies and salt. What a funny face he made. Breakfast went down the drain. Then coffee. The very same experience. We laughed and laughed. Dad thought we were pretty funny too!

Paul is telling us our conversations with others about our faith can be the same. We need the right spice, and not too much. Too much salt or sugar is not good. Just as a little bit of your faith (of God's truth) can make a person interested and they will be hungry for more (they probably won't dump it down the drain!).

May the Lord sensitize you to those conversations and the moments to add the right amount of salt. May you be empowered to share your faith and encourage others to know Christ. I believe if we do this, more people will be curious about us and want to know Christ. We will fill the church on Sunday mornings if we live our faith this way. I'm sure of it!

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not
dishonor others,
it is not self-
seeking, it is not

keeps no record

does not
